

St Edmund's
& St Mark's

Wootton Bridge

A very warm welcome to any visitors worshipping with us today! When you attend one of our services please use the time before the service starts for quiet prayer.

At our Communion services those who are confirmed and those who normally receive Communion in their own church are invited to receive Communion. All are welcome to receive a blessing.

Mountbatten: Remembering with Ribbons

Remembering is an important part of the Mountbatten 'living, dying, remembering' strapline and you are invited to dedicate a ribbon in memory of someone special. Your loved one doesn't need to have received care from Mountbatten for you to do this, but by donating with your dedicated ribbon you will help Mountbatten support more Islanders who are bereaved, and others who need expert care.

Remembering with Ribbons

At www.mountbatten.org.uk/appeal/remembering-with-ribbons you will be able to add a ribbon and a message to the online tree, and the ribbon will be written for you and added to the garden.

Ribbons will be displayed in the Chelsea garden until the beginning of September, and you are very welcome to visit.

Prayer

God of love,
turn our hearts to your ways;
and give us peace. Amen
